

ARE YOU A LOCAL CRAFTER?

Perhaps you've started a business and you're selling your work online?

You may not be aware of all the requirements you need to comply with. Shetland Islands Council's Trading Standards team are here to help you make sure that you're getting it right, and that your product complies with all the regulations post-Brexit.

So whether you've already started selling your crafts, or are still in the design stages, Trading Standards are here to help you.
